Lawfulness, fairness, and transparency

Any processing of personal data should be lawful and fair. It should be transparent to individuals that personal data concerning them are collected, used, consulted, or otherwise processed and to what extent the personal data are or will be processed. The principle of transparency requires that any information and communication IBM Confidential Data Security Training Module 15 relating to the processing of those personal data be easily accessible and easy to understand, and that clear and plain language be used.
